Dear Leon County Schools,

We are reaching out today on behalf of the Our Voices, Our History, Our Future Coalition, a working coalition composed of the League of Women Voters of Florida, Common Cause Florida, the NAACP Florida State Conference, and Florida Watch who are dedicated to promoting civic engagement in our state.

In order to advance this objective and to celebrate Black History Month in February, we are holding a contest for students in Florida to highlight key figures in Black history from our state and our nation. While instruction in Black history is required in Florida's public school system, fostering new ways to bring historical African American figures to light with relevant context, is important for all students to develop a deeper understanding of their place in history and to encourage their civic involvement as they become young adults.

The contest is open to all students K-12 in Bay and Leon counties. Contestants will be judged by grade divisions and the category of their entry. The division of grades will be K-3 (Junior), Grades 4-8 (Intermediate) and Grades 9-12 (Senior).

Rubric:

- Grades K-3 (Junior - Visual Entries Only): Coloring a drawing of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (drawing attached) and answer the following questions underneath: Why do you think we celebrate Dr. King? If you met Dr. King, what would you want to ask him?
- Grades 4-8 (Intermediate) and Grades 9-12 (Senior) will both have the opportunity to choose to create either an audio, written, or drawn contest entry. The student can choose to respond to one of the following prompts about one of the African Americans listed below.
